New Member Orientation

Peter J. Owens

We are all winding down our Kiwanis years. Does that mean that we stop trying to enlist new members into our clubs? If you look at the statistics it would appear all activity to grow happens in the first few months of the new leadership and then fizzles out.

Why not have one last "New Member Night"? How about putting a three person committee together – rent or find a small meeting area – have wine and cheese on hand. Get the best member of the club to prepare an agenda. Invited the LTG and anyone else the District will provide and have a short but enlightening meeting. Challenge your club to individually promise to bring a "guest" to this meeting. Make your meeting no longer than one hour and concentrate on those things that made you join Kiwanis. We have plenty to 'brag about' and you can easily put a 'great and interesting' new member meeting together. Do not let the idea that the summer is for rest and relaxation deter you.

Remember every new member broadens our base. It allows a club to increase their Sponsored Youth and other community programs. It allows you to try new fundraising activities that will give your club larger funds to return to the community in youth related projects.

Presidents – your job is not over. You have many good months still to lead. So I ask you to lead. Show the club the way to get larger and better. Put this on your next agenda and have a meeting in July. Everyone has a banker, doctor, insurance man, lawyer or accountant. Everyone also shops at the local shoe man, baker, fruit store and butcher. There are many great people out there that need to be invited. Take the challenge. Have your club take one more shot at improving your membership. If you get it done I will assure you that next year will take care of itself.

Editor's Note: Here is a delicious CRAB DIP recipe from the our visit to PLG Jim Schalck's Hudson River West Division. This is Jim's favorite recipe so Hazel Goldstein always make it for any event they have where Jim will be! It was so delicious, I thought we should share it with you. Thanks Hazel!

HAZEL'S YUMMY CRAB DIP

- 1 cup finely chopped crabmeat or faux crab meat
- 1 cup chopped onion
- 1 cup mayonnaise

Form a committee that includes the Kiwanis and Faculty Advisors and the Key club and Circle K Club presidents to discuss the benefits and possibilities of a joint mentoring program.

Secure the approval of the Board of Directors and the school. In many cases the Faculty Advisor is authorized to approve the project.

Have each potential mentor complete a form on his or her profession and other interests. Provide similar form to be students.

Work together to match mentors and mentees and prepare the participants for the program.

Monitor progress of the mentorship as much as possible.

Devote a club meeting to honor the participants in the program. This will encourage other members to join the program.

Why a mentoring program? – Changes over the years in family structures and neighborhood networks have increased the amount of time that many young people spend unsupervised. Today's youth are growing up faster than ever. At school, at home, in front of television and facing pressures from their peers to use alcohol, cigarettes, and drugs at younger and younger ages.

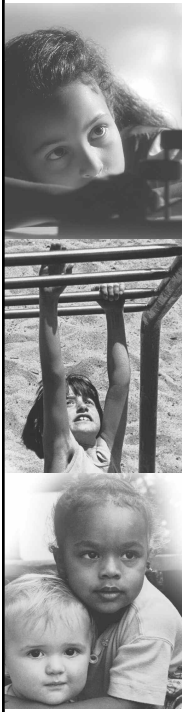

Kiwanis can make a difference – through the avenue of Sponsored Youth Organizations by reaching out to young people: the ones who may seem disaffected, undirected, or lost. If you show children that you respect them enough to share your interests with them, you can transform their lives. You can prove to them that they matter, that their future matters, and that their lives are too important to be wasted doing nothing or drugs.

Need assistance to implement a mentoring program? Feel free to call 518-793-4584 or 518-793-9349 for immediate assistance. A complete mentoring package will be available at the Sponsored Youth Booth at the District Convention.
