Marina at Kamp Dedicated to PG Jim Yochum

The marina at Kamp Kiwanis was dedicated to Past Gov. Jim Yochum May 14 during the annual Kamp Open House.

Yochum was serving as District Foundation Treasurer when he died Nov. 27, 2010.

Yochum served many years as the treasurer of the New York District Foundation, which operates the kamp, and had served in many other roles during his years in Kiwanis.

Foundation President Sal Anelli, noted that Jim frequently responded "don't you realize, it's for the kids," when questions were asked about priorities. Several others offered comments during the dedication as well.
