District Contact Information Changes

In addition to the annual change in elected leaders, other changes are taking place for the 2016-17 Administrative year.

Along with the appointment of Richard Hall as the new District Secretary, the district office has moved and has a new address, PO Box 428, Glen Cove, NY 11542, and a new telephone number, (516) 671-1786.

The e-mail address for the district office remains the same, districtoffice@kiwanis-ny.org.

Many new committee chairs also have been appointed. See the listing on the district web site, www.kiwanis-ny.org, for the details.

E-Mails from the District to Kiwanians

For the past few years, the district has been using e-mails from Constant Contact as a way to communicate quickly with Kiwanians around the district. The system allows the district office to pinpoint e-mails to specific audiences, such as one division or all club presidents.

The e-mail addresses in the system are the ones maintained by club secretaries in KiwanisOne, where secretaries do all the member updates and monthly reports. If an e-mail address is missing or wrong there, you will not get the e-mails targeted for you.

Club secretaries can help by making sure they have the most up to date e-mail address for their membership and then making sure those addresses have been entered into each member's record on KiwanisOne.

If you have any questions about this process or difficulties, contact the district webmaster, Marty Toombs, at webmaster@kiwanis-ny.org.

Anti-Bullying Essay Contest

The District's Anti-Bullying Chair, Keith Cummings, has announced an anti-bullying essay contest for students in the state 16 and under.

All students 16 and under in the state are eligible to participate. The winner will receive a $200 gift card and a trip to Albany with their family. Entries are due by April 30, 2017.

More information is available on the district web site.

Port Chester-Rye Brook Presents Scholarships

On Aug. 2 the Kiwanis Club of Port Chester-Rye Brook presented six high school scholarships for $1,000 each to: Leonard Pietrafesa, Mesha Iqbal, Alfred DiLeo, Danielle Winchester, Steven Hernandez and Shannon Maguire.

The presentations took place at the club's annual picnic. The event also was used to collect school supplies that will be donated to the Council of Community Services to be distributed throughout the community to those in need this fall. The raffle raised $60 and along with a $30 donation, 17 knapsacks will be donated to the Neighborhood Preservation Company.

The club also donated $1,095 to the Rye Brook DARE program to fund the continuing education of our youth and the Anthony Zimbalatti Special Citizens Camp also benefited from our fund raising of $300.

Club Receives Grants

The Central Adirondack Kiwanis Foundation has recently received $2,000 in unrestricted grants.

The Kiwanis club's foundation got $1,500 from the Adirondack League Club Community Fund, and $500 from the James E. Nunn Memorial Foundation, Inc.
